DETAILED ACTION

Examiner hereby withdraws the previous election of species requirement in favor of the current election of species requirement in order to correct an oversight and avoid any confusion in the future. The previous requirement mailed on June 2, 2005 incorrectly identified claim 9 as belonging to group I. The current requirement correctly identifies claim 9 as belonging to group II since the claim specifically recites that the surface of the array substrate is rubbed in a 225 degree direction.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a liquid crystal display device wherein the surface of the array substrate is rubbed in a 315 degree direction
- II. Claims 9-16, drawn to a liquid crystal display device wherein the surface of the array substrate is rubbed in a 225 degree direction

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim appears generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to David Chung whose telephone number is (571) 272-2288. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.
